

Employing Disabled People Training

From recruitment and selection through to retirement, the Disability Discrimination Act provides a structure with which to improve your ability to widen your pool of potential employees and make the most of the experience at your disposal.

There are a number of issues around making this an effective process, which is why this course has been developed.

This course includes Managing Disability Related Absences.

	Dates	Location
Trainers	Martin Austin Nimbus Disability Equality TBC Visual Impairment Awareness TBC Deaf Awareness
Aims and Objectives	This course will provide you with the knowledge to provide potential employment opportunities to disabled people, retain staff, understand reasonable adjustments and sources of support with their implementation.
Learning outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Understand the legal issues surrounding employing disabled people▪ Understand the benefits that employing disabled people can have on your business / organisation▪ Understand what reasonable adjustments are and how to implement / evidence them▪ Identify sources of support and finance to help you to provide adjustments
Further information	For further information on this course, and the other courses and services offered by Nimbus visit the website at www.ask-nimbus.com or contact us by any of the other methods listed below.
Contact Details	Nimbus: The Disability Consultancy Service Ltd. 20 Royal Scot Road Pride Park Derby DE24 8AJ Telephone: 01332 404023 Fax: 01332 404041 Email: info@ask-nimbus.com Web: www.ask-nimbus.com	